5. Copyright Release: Copyright laws make it necessary for ARPAS to obtain a release from authors for all materials published. To this end we ask you to grant us all rights, including subsidiary rights, for your article. You will hereby be relinquishing to the American Registry of Professional Animal Scientists all control over this material such as rights to make or authorize reprints, to reproduce the material in other ARPAS publications, and to grant the material to others without charge in any book of which you are the author or editor after it has appeared in the Journal.

Whereas the American Registry of Professional Animal Scientists is undertaking to publish The Professional Animal Scientist, of which the undersigned is author of one or more parts, the author grants and assigns exclusively to ARPAS for its use any and all rights of whatsoever kind or nature now or hereafter protected by the copyright laws (common or statutory) of the United States and all foreign countries in all languages in and to the above named article, including all subsidiary rights. ARPAS, in turn, grants to the author the right of republication in any book of which the undersigned is an author or editor, subject only to giving proper credit in the book to the original journal publication of the article by ARPAS.

The authors will receive no monetary return from ARPAS for the use of this material.
